For a chic and effortless style, consider the knotted elegance technique:

Fold the scarf into a thin band.

Place the center of the band on your forehead.

Bring the ends back to the front and tie a knot, allowing the excess fabric to hang down.

This style works well with both lightweight and chunky scarves, adding a touch of flair to your overall look.

Add a retro touch to your style by incorporating a bow into your head wrap:

Tie a knot, leaving the ends hanging down.

This carefree style works well with casual and festival-inspired outfits, creating a relaxed and trendy vibe.

For an elegant and regal appearance, opt for the wrapped crown style:

Place the scarf at the back of your head with the ends hanging down.

Bring the ends to the back and tie a knot or a bow, securing the scarf like a crown.

This sophisticated look is ideal for formal events or when you want to exude a polished and refined aura.
