The placement of planets in the birth chart creates yoga and dosha in various Rahis and houses. When placed in its debilitation or Neech sign, a planet brings highly inauspicious results to the native. But the same negative dosha turns into the most auspicious yoga when there is a Neech bhanga or the cancellation of debilitation in the kundli. This time in April 2024, the planet Mercury is forming a Neech bhanga Yoga in sign of Pisces. The neech bhanga yoga of Mercury is highly auspicious for some zodiac signs mentioned here.

Pisces- a general overview

Pisces is one of the twelve zodiac signs. It's known as a water sign representing compassion, creativity, and intuition. People born under the Pisces sign are often gentle, compassionate, and imaginative. They have a deep appreciation for music, art, and poetry and are often creative and artistic. Being ruled by the planet Jupiter, they tend to be intuitive and spiritual. Pisces individuals are known for being dreamy and romantic, sometimes getting lost in their own thoughts and fantasies. They can be incredibly caring and understanding but may sometimes struggle with boundaries and self-confidence.

What will happen when Mercury is in Pisces

When Mercury is debilitated, it means that it is not in its strongest astrological position.

Mercury in Pisces, which can influence communication, intellect, and decision-making. As a result, individuals with Mercury in debilitation may experience challenges in expressing themselves clearly and effectively. They might struggle with making decisions and could be prone to confusion or misunderstandings in their communication. Additionally, their analytical abilities may be weakened, leading to difficulties processing information and problem-solving. Take an online consultation or voice report to know the strength of Mercury in your birth chart.

However, despite these challenges, individuals with Mercury in debilitation can still harness positive traits associated with Pisces, such as creativity, intuition, and empathy. They may excel in artistic or imaginative pursuits and deeply understand emotions and feelings. By tapping into their intuitive nature and embracing their creative potential, they can overcome the obstacles posed by Mercury's debilitation and find success in their efforts.

These zodiac signs will get good results.

Gemini: For those born under the Gemini zodiac sign, the Neech Bhanga Yoga will be formed in the tenth house of career. This yoga will bring highly auspicious results in your career and profession. All your tasks will be accomplished, and if you are awaiting any property deal, it will be done this month. Mercury is your lagna lord, and it is making a highly auspicious yoga in your tenth house. This is an excellent position for your new business ventures and career growth.

Additionally, your financial conditions will improve, and your business will have highly positive results. If you are unemployed, this is the time to get a job. You will also get a job promotion, and you will receive positive updates about your career and property.

Taurus: For individuals with the Taurus zodiac sign, the Neech bhanga Yoga of Mercury will occur in their eleventh house. This is an excellent time for monetary gains and achieving your desires. You may have new sources of income, and your name and fame will increase. Additionally, there will be profits through your social circle, and your relationships will improve, leading to gains in all directions. You will receive good news from your children. If you deal in the stock market, it is the perfect time to make huge gains. In summary, the time is highly favourable for you.

Cancer: For Cancer natives, Mercury will form a highly auspicious yoga in their ninth house, known as the house of fortune. Although Mercury is not a favourable planet for your zodiac sign, an extremely powerful planet in the house of fortune will support your luck. You will be able to accomplish all your endeavours, and it is a highly auspicious time for your zodiac sign. You can plan long travels, and students can go abroad for higher studies.

You will benefit from the guidance and advice of your father and mentors or Mumbai Astro. Some religious travel may also be on the cards. Overall, it is a highly auspicious month for you.
